

K-Love radio is very important to me & to my community. They provide positive, encouraging music & comments without commercial interruption. I believe the public is served by this positive & encouraging programming to live a better life.